

Teaching Staff Academy – Teaching Europe Conference

12-13 DECEMBER 2024

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Funding project: EUPeace

Opening date: Oct 5th, 2024

Application deadline: Nov 20th, 2024

The members of the WP2 of the EUPeace Alliance are pleased to announce that the first edition of the Teaching Staff Academy will be held from December 10th to 13th, 2024, online, combining 2 sub-events, the Training week from December 10th and 11th, and the Teaching Europe Conference, from December 12th and 13th.

In line with the EUPeace mission statement, the objective of this first edition of the Teaching Europe Conference is to develop joint and innovative teaching and learning experiences, to identify innovative teaching practices in all the partner universities, and bring our entire academic communities together to generate knowledge, competence and innovative approaches to fostering peace, justice, and inclusive societies.

Objectives:

- Share best practices, innovative methods to peers and students through the presentations
- Train peers and students to new methods or techniques through the workshops
- Share the values of the project with teachers, trainers and students of the Alliance Universities
- Bring together colleagues and students from various universities and training institutes in Europe
- Create a Europe wide network on innovative training methods and capacity building on inclusion and diversity
- Widen the cooperation to education/training programmes and offer the possibility to cooperate through national or European funding (Erasmus programme, etc.)

Topics for papers include (but not limited to):

- Teaching “Peace”, “Justice”, and “Inclusion”
- Themes of inclusion and diversity in a European context (and beyond);
- Fostering intercultural knowledge and competences in school and university education;
- Multilingualism in the class- and seminar room: challenges and opportunities

Format:

- 20-minute presentation + 20 minutes of Q&A
- Possible to reuse/adapt existing presentations

Target audience:

- Teachers from the Alliance and beyond
- Members of the other EUPeace Alliance
- Students
- Administrative staff

Who can apply:

- Contributors/Participants: UMR, UNICAL, UWB, JLU, UNILIM, COMILLAS, SUM, CU, UNSA, all associated and supporting partners
- Teachers, teacher-researchers, lecturers and staff of the alliance members willing to share best practices on inclusion and diversity

How to apply:

To apply, please register as a speaker on the following link, and submit your abstract – 1 page max, PDF format by November 20th, 2024: <https://formulaires.unilim.fr/teaching-staff-academy-teaching-europe>

General Information:

- This first edition will be held online, but the following editions will be held in person
- There is no limit of attendance

Overall Selection Criteria:

- Relevance of the topic
- Distribution of the trainings among the partners/representation

Selection Process:

The TSA Working Group will be selecting the proposals.