

Dear colleagues,

as we informed you last week regarding the call for applications / nominations, Undergraduate and Master Erasmus students coming to the University of Granada are required to demonstrate a minimum level (B1) of proficiency in the language of instruction (primarily Spanish, plus a modest academic offer in English).

In order to accredit the required level (B1), applicants must provide a certificate of competence, according to CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).

Since many students haven't got a certificate at the time of doing their application, the University of Granada gives them the chance of taking the eLADE (the UGR official bi-level (B1-B2) Spanish online exam, organised by the Centro de Lenguas Modernas (CLM): <https://www.clm-granada.com/elade/index-en.html> .

The exam fulfils all the international criteria for language accreditation, and has been recognized at national and European level. It is organized 2 times each year (May and September), and its online format facilitates that it can be taken at the home university prior to the mobility, providing applicants with further opportunities to fulfil the language requirement.

Partner institutions may host the exam occasionally (for a particular call) or become an eLADE ExamCertified Test Examination Site: <http://elade.es/en/elade-solicitud-sede.html>

The next call of eLADE will take place on the 11th of May 2021. If you have undergraduate or master students interested in applying for the Erasmus+ KA107 scholarship at UGR and they know the language but they do not have the required accreditation, they can participate in the call for the exam. The registration deadline is the 15th April 2021. Please, note that the exam is free for the students. The fees of the exam will be covered by the Organisation Support funds (Erasmus + EU funds of the Erasmus + International Credit Mobility Project). However, this exam should only be offered to students that do not already have an Official language proficiency exam at the time of being selected. Moreover, please make sure you have officially selected and intent to nominate the students that will take this test. The exam fees will be paid only for the number of students that are included in the Inter Institutional Agreement. That is, if you have 1 undergraduate student scholarship available in the Inter Institutional Agreement, the eLade fees of 1 student will be covered.

If you have applicants interested in taking the exam, please, get in contact with the Centro de Lenguas Modernas (elade@clm.ugr.es) to inform them about their interest in taking the exam. In case you have students who will be nominated and will apply for admission at UGR and want to take this exam, please, let us know so that we can consider their applications until they get the outcome of the exam.

For further information please see below the info offered by the Centro de Lenguas Modernas:
